Gun Lake Casino Announces $10 Million Interior Renovation Project

Significant Investment in Amenities Comes in Advance of Hotel Resort Opening

(Wayland, Mich.) – Gun Lake Casino (GLC) today announced a significant investment of $10 million to enhance its food and beverage, entertainment, and gaming amenities. This will entail the construction of a new Crossroads Casino Bar and lounge, a new high-limit table games room, and a new restaurant, Lucky Dragon Noodle Bar, offering authentic and exquisite noodles and Asian cuisine.

“We are excited to announce exciting renovations coming soon here at Gun Lake Casino,” said Sal Semola, CEO. “Continuing our commitment to enhancing the guest experience through innovation and excellence, this $10 million investment by the Gun Lake Tribe will bring a new noodle restaurant, a new center bar, and a new high-limit table games room.”

Preparation for construction of these renovations will begin immediately. Guests will notice the temporary relocation of some table games, slots, and the existing Grab & Go venue. The all-new Crossroads Casino Bar, high-limit table games room, and Lucky Dragon Noodle Bar are scheduled to open by year’s end. GLC partnered with Pioneer Construction, JIVE Architecture, and HBG on this project. Look for updates at <https://gunlakecasino.com>.

A major expansion project is simultaneously under construction at GLC, which is known as Phase 5. It will bring a 252-room Four Diamond hotel, multiple indoor swimming pools, a full-service spa, new dining options, and more. The $300 million expansion is scheduled to open in 2025.
