Gun Lake Casino Brings Comedy, Brand New Music and Burlesque to Southwest Michigan

(Wayland, Mich.) – Gun Lake Casino (GLC) guests will have no shortage of exciting live shows in the weeks ahead, including a nationally-known comedienne, an album release, and even some spicy burlesque to the 131 Sportsbar and Lounge.

“Gun Lake Casino has an outstanding lineup of live entertainment in the next several weeks that our guests are going to love,” said Carter Pavey, Vice President of Marketing.

As the Presenting Sponsor for the week-long Gilda’s Club Laughfest event, GLC welcomes headliner Tammy Pescatelli from Comedy Central and Showtime on March 7 with two shows at 5:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. General seating tickets are available for $25 via the Laughfest website, www.laughfestgr.org.

“Our exceptional food and beverage team has crafted a new cocktail just for this Laughfest show,” Pavey said. The Red Door Punch will be debuted for this event. A cash bar and snack menu will also be available.

The following week brings an album release from the popular hometown band, Wayland. Comprised of Mitchel Arnold and Phillip Vilenski, the rock-pop duo will debut their new album, “On the Way” featuring the single “Way Back When” for one show at 8 p.m. on March 16.

“Booth rentals are already sold out for the debut, but general admission is free,” Pavey said.

Coming from Los Angeles, California, Lalas Burlesque Show is taking over 131 Sportsbar & Lounge with two shows on Saturday, April 20, with choreographed dance, music, and risqué entertainment. “Lalas is best of the show in the prevalent live burlesque genre,” Pavey said.

Equally funny as it is sexy, Lalas Burlesque is made for date night, girls' night out, or anyone who wants to see empowered women take the stage.

Starting at $30, seating and ticket purchases for Lala's Burlesque Show and all featured live shows are available at <https://gunlakecasino.com/entertainment>.
